Secretary of Agriculture Wilson says we import nearly nine-tenths of the sugar we use, for which we have paid to foreign producers in the prst few years about $500,000,000, while on 1,000,000 acres we could produce every pound of sugar we consume. There is a big opening for this industry in the South.

It isn't every fellow who has the pleasure of looking at his own tombstone and reading the epitaph on it. But that is what a Kansas soldier, who returned from Santiago, did the other day. He had been for years an inmate of a soldier's home without his people knowing it. He got the war fever and went to Cuba. Returning he visited the family cemetery at Elmwood, where he saw a nice tombstone erected by his sister, who supposed he was dead.

Elsewhere in this issue we publish some incendiary utterances by Lee Person, the negro candidate for State Senator from Edgecombe county. He was one of the fusion statesmen in the last Legislature. Here is another object lesson for the white people of North Carolina to study.

Company K.

The members of Company K were very quiet and orderly all yesterday. In fact they were not even much in evidence. Most of them were enjoying the comforts of home life as only a soldier can. Every member of the company was thoroughly delighted with the reception given by the people of Wilmington. It is generally agreed that it was one of the most magnificent affairs ever known here.

MORE NEGRO SCOUNDRELISM.

Black Beasts Attempt to Outrage the Young Daughter of a Respectable Farmer.

HER FATHER SWEARS TO IT.

Attacked On the Public Highway in Brunswick County While Returning From Sunday School—Her Screams Saved Her From a Fate Worse Than Death.

Joseph Gore is an honest and respectable farmer of the county of Brunswick—poor in this world's goods, but esteemed by his neighbors. He has a wife and children, and there is a church and Sunday school near his home which are attended by his family. But he lives in a township where the negroes outnumber the whites more than three to one. This, coupled with the fact, no doubt, that Brunswick county is under Republican-Fusion rule, emboldened two beastly negroes to make an attempt to outrage a young girl on the public road as narrated in the following affidavit:

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA, County of Brunswick.

Personally appeared before me, Geo. H. Bellamy, a Justice of the Peace for Town Creek township, Brunswick county, Joseph Gore, who, being duly sworn, states: "Some days ago my daughter, aged 15 years, was returning from Sunday School, accompanied by her little brother, aged 12 years, about 3 o'clock in the afternoon. When about a quarter of a mile from home, two negro boys, aged about 16 to 18 years, ran after my daughter, with their coats turned over their heads to conceal their identity, and attempted to take hold of her, and doubtless would have placed their unholy hands on her person; and had it not been for her screams would have doubtless accomplished their purpose. This was done in Town Creek township, in broad daylight. The villains have not yet been detected.

Signed, "JOSEPH GORE."

Signed and sworn to before me this 19th day of September, A. D., 1898.
GEO. H. BELLAMY, J. P.

White men of Brunswick county, can you stand that? Is there one left in the borders of your county who will not now vote against every candidate who consorts with negroes, and who is dependent on them for election? Has it come to this, that your daughters cannot attend church or Sunday school without having a body-guard to protect them from the lustful black brutes who roam through your county?

Rise in your might, white men of Brunswick. Assert your manhood. Go to the polls and help stamp out the last vestige of Republican-Populist-Negro Fusion.

ROBESON COUNTY CAMPAIGN.

Bellamy and Kitchin, With Their Scalping Knives, Are on the War Path.

John D. Bellamy, the white man's Democratic candidate for Congress, will address the people at Maxton Friday 23rd inst., and at Red Springs, Saturday 24th.

Hon. W. H. Kitchin will speak at Branchville next Monday, 26th inst.; at Sterling's Mill, Tuesday, the 27th, and at St. Paul's, Wednesday, the 28th. There will be a basket picnic at each of these appointments.

There will be a basket picnic and public speaking at J. P. Mercer's Mill, in Howellsville township, Saturday, October 1st. Democratic speakers will be present, and speakers of the party opposed to white government have been invited to a joint debate.

Hold Robeson and Save the State.

Robeson county is now aflame with political excitement. Bellamy arrived at Lumberton Monday and is spending the whole week in the county, making speeches and doing effective work among the people. "Buck" Kitchin will begin a tour of the county next Monday, and he will add fuel to the flame. Edmund and the other leading pie-hunters of the negro party are demoralized by the fear of overwhelming defeat, and the white men of Robeson are correspondingly elated. The news from Robeson is just good enough for any Democrat.

State Secretary Coming.

State Secretary W. M. Lewis, of the Young Men's Christian Association, will be in the city Saturday, Sunday and possibly Monday. He will conduct the 9.45 o'clock Bible class Sunday morning in the Association building; make a talk to boys in the lecture room at 2.30, and probably address a mass meeting in the auditorium at 5.15 P. M. More definite announcement will be made as to the mass meeting later.

Y. M. C. A. NIGHT SCHOOL.

More Detailed Reference to Plans and Course of Studies for the Ensuing Session.

As announced by the STAR several weeks ago, the night school of the Young Men's Christian Association will open for the sixth season October 3rd. There is every indication that the present year will prove the most useful since the school was started.

A new system of instruction has been adopted by which students may do much of their work at home, and still have the careful and constant attention of the teachers. In some studies the school need be visited only once or twice a week, yet, on the other hand, the teachers will be at the service of the students four nights in each week. A close watch will also be kept over the student's work in order to give him the most possible help, and at the same time to insist on honest work, for the committee states positively that they will not allow lazy students to remain in the classes.

Two new studies are added since last year, making seven in all—Arithmetic, Bookkeeping, English, Glee Singing, Penmanship, Shorthand and Spelling. The school lasts six months, giving ninety-six lessons in each study. The teachers are the professors of the Wilmington School of Business, as last year. The terms are very low, tuition being practically free to Y. M. C. A. members and costing, with the dues for a year, only about two cents per lesson, giving all the other advantages of the Association.

WHITE GOVERNMENT UNIONS.

Meetings in the Third, Fourth, and Fifth Wards Last Night.

The White Government Union of the Second Precinct of the Third Ward and the Second Precinct of the Fourth Ward met last night at Democratic headquarters.

One of the most enthusiastic meetings of the campaign so far was that of the Third and Fourth Precincts of the Fifth Ward last night at their hall, corner of Eighth and Castle streets. By invitation speeches were made by L. V. Grady, Esq., and Dr. N. M. Culbreth. These gentlemen are only recent acquisitions to the Wilmington Democracy, but they have its highest interests at heart, and their remarks last night were heard with the greatest interest by the large crowd of Democrats present. After they had concluded, Justice G. W. Bornemann was called for. He responded with his characteristic enthusiasm. Three cheers for the Judge were heartily given.

At the next meeting of the union, which will be at the same time and place, speeches will be made by A. J. Marshall, Esq., and others.

THE HANDICAP CYCLE RACE.

Prospects for a Big Time To-morrow. Sumptuous Supper at Night.

A very satisfactory meeting of the League of American Wheelmen was held last night. The boys are striving in every way possible to make the handicap races set for to-morrow afternoon a splendid success.

Elegantly printed invitations were issued yesterday which read as follows: "The pleasure of your company is requested at the Supper, to be given in honor of the riders in the 15-mile handicap race, Friday, Sept 23rd, 1898, at the L. A. W. Club Rooms, 10 1-2 North Second street, 8.30 o'clock P. M. Committee of arrangements, Jas. K. Forshee, John E. Platt, J. Hardy LeGwin."

The invitations have in the two upper corners neatly tied bows of ribbon in the League colors, white and blue. A list of the racers and judges for the races will be made public to-morrow morning. The election of League officers will not be held until the first Wednesday in October. Ten new members were enrolled last night during the meeting of the club.

IN THE MAYOR'S COURT.

Three Unimportant Cases Disposed of Yesterday by Mayor Wright.

There were no very important cases before Mayor Wright yesterday. Hugh McClelland, charged with being drunk and disorderly, was fined $5.00. Chas. A. Callahan, upon a similar charge, was fined $2.50.

Frank Onslow was also before the Mayor, charged with being drunk and disorderly. He is a one-legged colored man, who was serving a thirty days sentence in the city prison and who was regarded as a kind of a "trusty." He in some way made his escape, and was at large until picked up by Officer Toomer yesterday. The Mayor added ten days to his sentence and taxed him with the costs in the case.

Cakes and Crackers.

An amusing scene could have been seen on North Water street on Tuesday afternoon. A mule attached to a dray loaded with cakes and crackers took fright at the firing of the cannon and the blowing of the whistles announcing the arrival of our soldier boys and started off at a lively rate. The boxes fell off the dray and were burst open, scattering the cakes and crackers. There was a lively scrimmage after them by the bystanders. Boxes and bagsfull were carried off, while those who gathered smaller quantities feasted on the spot.

ARTISTIC DECORATING.

Excellent Work of Mr. Miller at J. H. Rehder's Store and Elsewhere.

Mr. George Miller, of New York, the expert decorator who has been employed for the past year or more at the splendid country place of Mr. Thomas A. McIntire, has done some admirable work in this city recently. He has decorated in a most artistic manner the new iron front to Mr. J. H. Rehder's store on Fourth street just beyond the bridge. The work is beautiful in design and executed in a manner thoroughly in keeping with Mr. Miller's excellent reputation as an artist. Mr. Miller is also finishing up some beautiful interior decorations at the residence of Mr. Clayton Giles. He expects to return to Mr. McIntire's place for the winter very soon.

Another Sneak Thief.

Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Will Hall, who resides on Red Cross street between Fourth and Fifth, found a negro man in the room occupied by her brother, Mr. Robt. King. The negro said that Mr. King had sent him for an old shirt. Mrs. King ordered him out of the house, telling him that she knew he was telling a falsehood. After he had been away a few minutes she discovered that he had carried off a very fine pistol owned by Mr. King. There is no clue of the identity of the negro.

IN THE BONDS OF MATRIMONY.

Marriage of Miss Mary Catherine Mohr to Mr. Frederick A. Bissinger—A Beautiful Ceremony.

St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church was on yesterday the scene of a beautiful marriage service which bound in the holy bonds of matrimony two highly esteemed Wilmingtonians, Mr. Frederick A. Bissinger and Miss Mary Catherine Mohr. The marriage was at 6.30 P. M., and was attended by a large company of relatives and friends. In fact many who came were unable to find seats or even get into the church.

The special church decorations were very pretty and quite unique. An arch of bamboo and golden-rod was constructed in front of the altar. On the altar and pulpit were luxuriant palms and other potted plants. Also on the reading desk and baptismal font. The altar railing was laced with bamboo. There were tall palms and tastefully placed festoons on either side and back of the pulpit. High up on the arches on either side of the organ alcove were clusters of bamboo over which pure white doves hovered. These and other features of decoration together with the eager and pleased audience blended in the creation of an especially pretty and appropriate wedding scene.

The entrance of the bridal party was in time to Lohengrin's bridal march, admirably executed on the pipe organ by Miss Kate Stolter. The ushers led the procession to the altar. They were Mr. John Hentze with Mr. August Zoeller, and Mr. William Bissinger with Mr. Henry Mohr. They were followed by the groom with Mr. Henry Haar, best man. Miss Elese Ortman, as maid of honor, preceded the bride-elect who advanced to the altar leaning on the arm of her father by whom she was given away when the party gathered at the altar. The beautiful Lutheran ring wedding service was impressively performed by the pastor, Rev. A. G. Voigt, D. D.

The bride was attired in an elegant brown cloth travelling suit and carried bride's roses. The maid of honor was dressed in a costume of a similar color and fabric and carried a lovely bouquet.

After the marriage the bridal party drove to the Atlantic Coast Line depot where Mr. and Mrs. Bissinger boarded the 7.15 north bound train for a bridal tour. They will visit Washington, New York, Niagara Falls and other places of interest, and will be at home at 517 Princess street after October 15th. The bride is quite an estimable young lady, the daughter of Mr. Peter Mohr and the groom is a popular and successful young business man, a member of the C. W. Polvogt Co., one of the largest mercantile establishments in the city. The store closed yesterday in time to allow all the salespeople to attend the wedding. The high esteem in which bride and groom are held was forcably attested by a splendid array of costly bridal presents. The STAR extends congratulations to the groom and best wishes for their happiness.

OFF TO ST. MARY'S SCHOOL.

Several of Wilmington's brightest, prettiest and sweetest young ladies left yesterday on the 9.30 A. M. Coast Line train to enter St. Mary's School at Raleigh, and another bevy, in every way their peers, accompanied them on the way as far as Goldsboro and returned to Wilmington on the evening train. The young ladies who went to St. Mary's were Miss Louise Bunting, Miss Carrie Wright, Miss Mary Nash, Miss Emma West, Miss Nellie and Miss Elliott Emerson, Miss Julia Parsley, Miss Alice Smallbones, and Miss Addie Gaylord.

The young ladies who saw them on their way as far as Goldsboro were Miss Jennie, Miss Carrie and Miss Katherine Harriss and Miss Kate Harlowe. Several young gentlemen were so fortunate as to serve as an escort for the whole party. They were Mr. Henry McMillan, Mr. Robert Nash, Dr. Clint Bunting and Mr. Ed. Peschau. Mr. Nash went to Tarboro and Mr. Peschau to Rocky Mount. Dr. Bunting went to Baltimore, where he will enter the University of Maryland, to prosecute his medical studies. The other gentlemen have or will very soon return to Wilmington.

At the depot yesterday morning there was a very large company of the young ladies' friends, as well as relatives, to see them off.

Mr. Emerson's private car was attached to the train and Mrs. Emerson also went to Raleigh to enter her daughters at school.

Those of the escort who returned to Wilmington yesterday evening give a glowing account of the trip as far as Goldsboro. The party is conceded to have been the merriest that has traveled that road in many a day.

Miss Mary Wootten, Miss Isabella Rountree and Miss Annita DeRosset will leave for St. Mary's to-day.

Rally in Brunswick.

There will be a grand rally of the white men of Brunswick county at Mill Creek Precinct, in Town Creek Township, Saturday October 1st.

Col. John D. Taylor, Mr. Iredell Meares and others have been invited to address the people.

All white voters and their families are cordially invited to attend.

MARKET HOUSE MATTERS.

Total City Rental Income—All Except Five Stalls Tenanted—Market House and Other Bonds Lost.

The income derived by the city from the three city markets, based on the stall and store rentals as made at public auction Tuesday will be $2,268.25. Of this amount $1,710 will be from the Front street market, $391.25 from the Fourth street market and $167 from the Fifth Ward market. There are two stalls each still unrented at the Front and Fourth street markets and one at the Fifth Ward market.

It will be remembered that the Front street market cost the city $30,000, all of which has been paid except $5,000, the bonds for which seem to be lost. Interest has been cut off from them for several years, and they are far past due. They were issued in 1885. It is not believed that they will ever be presented for payment.

Referring to city bonds which have never been presented for payment and seem to be lost, it will be interesting to note the following: One $1,000 bond, due 1878; six $1,000 bonds, due 1879; one $500 bond, due 1879; one $500 bond, due 1882; one $100 bond, due 1882, and three $100 bonds, due 1887.

DEMOCRATS IN JOHNSTON.

Meeting at Kenly—Speaking by Pou and Connor—1500 White Men and 500 Ladies Present.

[Special Star Telegram.]

KENLY, N. C., Sept. 21.—This was a red-letter day for the Democrats in this (Johnston) county. The citizens of Kenly and vicinity gave a big barbecue and picnic, and the political issues of the day were discussed by Hon. E. W. Pou, candidate for solicitor in this district, and Judge H. G. Connor, of Wilson county.

By early morning people from Nash, Wilson, Wayne and Johnston began coming in, until we had an audience composed of about fifteen hundred white men and five hundred ladies. It is useless to say that both speeches were powerful in argument and sweeping in effect. Mr. Pou paid his respects to the present administration and made good his assertions that "It is impossible to fuse truth and falsehood." Judge Connor appealed to the patriotism of his hearers with telling effect.

There were several Populists and Republicans present who will long remember this day and who will date their return to the white man's party from to-day.

BRUNSWICK POPULISTS.

Four of Them Who Believe That Their Home is With the Democratic Party There Are Others.

Four of the STAR's subscribers in Brunswick county have requested the publication of the following card:

IREDELL, N. C., Sept. 20, 1898.

Editor Wilmington Star:

We have been voting with the Populists until we see where we are drifting. When we joined them we thought we were doing right, but now we see we have no home except in the White Men's Party.

One Populist friends need not think we are "getting a button" for writing this. We do it on our own accord. No one has influenced us in any way. We claim nothing as it is our duty to warn young men against the wrath to come. We also write this letter for the benefit of our children and grand children and generations not born.

We love our Populist friends and wish they could see as we do. A great many of them we know have had their eyes opened as we have had ours opened and will vote with the good white people in the future.

Yours, very truly,
ELIAS JENRETT,
J. F. O'QUINN,

REPUBLICANS CAN'T STAND IT.

An Old Republican Comes Out Against Negro Rule.

The following, from an old Republican of Pender county, has been sent to the STAR with a request to publish:

WILLARD, N. C., Sept. 20.

To the voters of Union Township, Pender county:—

Having voted the Republican ticket since the war up to the time of the organization of the Populist party; and thinking that party about the same, I have since voted the Populist ticket. Seeing that I have been deceived by scheming and unprincipled politicians and that we are drifting surely and rapidly under negro rule, and being a white man and realizing the importance of white men standing together, I have determined to be a white man indeed and in truth, and vote the Democratic ticket. I know of numbers of others who have determined to do the same thing.

Yours for White Government,
D. C. RAINER.

North Carolina Car Service Association.

RALEIGH, N. C., SEPT. 10TH, 1898.

To all Consignors and Consignees of Freight:

Serious loss and much inconvenience has been caused, both to the shippers and Railroad Companies, by the unnecessary detention of cars in loading and unloading freight. Shippers are often unable to procure cars, tracks are encumbered and the speedy movement of freight is impossible under the practices that have prevailed. The Railroad Companies are obliged to correct this evil, and have issued the notice printed below.

The system thus established has been in successful operation in nearly all of the States in this country during many years, and with advantageous results to the public, as well as to the Railroads. The amount charged is not sufficient to compensate the railroads for the use of their cars and tracks for warehouse purposes and is not collected for the purpose of revenue, but for the prevention of the detention of cars, which affects both the public and the transportation lines. The rules will be enforced without discrimination by the North Carolina Car Service Association, which will act for all interests alike.

NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that on and after Oct. 1st, 1898, cars not unloaded within forty-eight (48) hours after arrival and cars which are not loaded within forty-eight (48) hours after being placed in position, shall be subject to a charge of one dollar ($1.00) per day or fraction thereof, for the detention of cars and use of tracks, Sundays and legal holidays excepted.

"PUT LIFE IN THE HULK."

That's what Populist ex-Senator Atwater, of Chatham county, says the Populist fusionists did for the Republican party. It was as dead as a smoked herring until the Populists put life into it. For eighteen years it had failed to make a successful stand against the Democratic party or to elect any man to office save here and there where it had a strong negro following some county offices and some members of the Legislature, who felt as much out of place as a Digger Indian would at an art exposition.

The Populists who worked up the fusion with the Republican party knew perfectly well the party they were scheming to cohabit with.

They knew its malodorous reputation and its infamous history.

They knew the men who were leading it.

They knew the party was the same old dog teeth, hide, hair and all that the Democrats trampled out of shape eighteen years before and they went into the co-partnership with their eyes open and with as sordid and corrupt inspirations as ever actuated the gang of brigands who held high carnival in the State when the old Republican party of Holden, Littlefield, Blow-Your-Horn-Billy Smith, & Co., was seeing its halcyon days of loot and licentiousness.

No decent, self-respecting State-loving man would ever have conceived, much less agreed to join with such a gang, and the man who did it by that act branded himself as a mercenary, unprincipled, time-serving trickster who was in politics for what was to be made out of it, and vile enough to wallow in any filth if the wallowing brought reward.

Here was a squad of men whose party was organized as a protest against the "old parties," but especially against the Republican party, which was responsible for nearly everything this new party condemned, forming a copartnership with the wing of that party in this State, agreeing to support and vote for its candidates for office, although these candidates were opposed to everything this new party advocated.

That didn't make any difference to Marion Butler, Cy. Thompson, S. Otho Wilson, Hal Ayer & Co., each of whom wanted something and went for it, and got it, and to get it they used better men, whom they deceived, to "put life into the dead hulk," and now the resuscitated cadaver controls them and controls what there is left of their party.

There isn't a nomination for any important office made by any Populist convention which is not dictated by the managers of the Republican party, and the Populist leaders know it, but dare not resent it if they cared to resent it.

Pritchard and Holton stand behind the screen in every one of these conventions and pull the wires.

They pulled the wires at the Populist Congressional convention in this district, and Office Hunter Dockery, who already had the Republican nomination in his pocket, was nominated.

They pulled the wires in the Populist convention in the Seventh district and Shuford was knocked out, and Caldwell, who was acceptable to them, was nominated.

They pulled the wires in the First district convention and Harry Skinner—Pritchard's friend—was nominated.

They pulled the wires in the Fourth district and Stroud was knocked out and Jenkins—a Pritchard Populist—was nominated.

And yet who has ever heard of a word of protest from any of these fusion Populist leaders against this manipulating of their conventions by the Republican bosses?

The only leading Populist who has even mildly noticed it is Marion Butler, who wrote that "the impression must not be permitted to go out that Republicans dictated nominations by Populist conventions." But the impression had gone out, for it had been done so openly that everybody knows it, and the Populist managers can't deny it.

Cy. Thompson frankly confessed the truth in his Chatham county speech when he said that they had to fuse and "support Republican goldbugs for office" because that was the only way they could keep their party alive until 1900, when they would nominate Bryan, take the wind out of the Democratic sails, and get together again on "free silver."

But this was only one of Cy's deceptive dodges, frauds, to fool Populists and excuse the dirty bargaining he and his crowd are now doing for the sake of the offices they hold or hope to win.

The disgusting thing about this whole business is that these miserable plotters for spoils claim to be honest, profess to believe in "principle" and to be actuated by disinterested motives and by a desire to promote the prosperity of the toiling classes, when everybody knows it is the craving for office which they can no more conceal than the crab can his claws.

There never was any decent excuse for this disreputable copartnership between the Republican and the Populist leaders, but if there never was a decent excuse for it it is infamous now when the color line has been drawn and it has become a question of white supremacy or negro rule. They endorse the negro rule and try to fool their followers and make light of it by declaring that it is only an election device of the Democrats to cry "nigger," "nigger;" but they know better, they know it is not a Democratic campaign cry only, but a real, live, vital issue, which affects more or less every white man, woman and child in this commonwealth.

They see more negroes in office now than there ever before were in the State, even in the days of reconstruction Radical ascendency, and more than there are in all the other States of the Union combined, and yet they have the amazing cheek to stand before an audience of presumably sensible people and assert that there is nothing in it, that it is only a trumped up Democratic issue for campaign purposes, and this when the negro Congressman White gave notice in his Raleigh State Convention speech that the race issue was on, that he welcomed and invited it and would force it in his district.

But for the sake of the spoils they, like that fusion candidate in Union county, "swallow fusion, negro and all," because by swallowing this filthy mess they may hold or get office.

Is it a wonder that decent, self-respecting Populists, who were Populists from principle, are turning away in loathing from such a disgusting leadership? The wonder is that they didn't do it sooner.

PRITCHARD POPULISTS.

Randolph county is in the Fourth Congressional District, where a Pritchard Populist is running for Congress, having through the manipulations of Pritchard's collectors of internal revenue defeated the present incumbent Stroud, (whom Pritchard couldn't use) for a re-nomination. The Populists of that county held their convention last week, and Pritchard's strikers were there and in it. Some of the delegates were much opposed to fusion with the Republicans and one of them, Rev. J. H. Wright, introduced the following resolutions, as reported by the Asheboro Courier:

"Resolved, By the Populists of Randolph county in convention assembled that we hereby reaffirm our adherence to the principles and platform of the national People's party as announciated by the national convention at St. Louis in 1896.

"Resolved, That we will support no one for office—legislative, executive or judicial—who is not in favor of the free and unlimited coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1.

"Resolved, That we condemn the past co-operation of the Populist party with the Republicans as conducive to the disruption of the People's party; to detraction from the principles thereof, and losing their progress to ultimate success in the political economy of our common country."

There was quite an animated discussion over these resolutions, the substance of which is thus reported by the Courier:

"Dr. Winslow spoke, saying that the constitution of the Populist party forbids co-operation, and that it seemed to him that the party was being swallowed by office-seekers, and if we fuse this time our party is gone to the goldbugs. If you fuse with the Republicans this year this is the last convention you will ever hold in the county. To fuse is dishonest and will put us in the gold standard party. He said he voted the fusion ticket two years ago, but was not now a Republican.

"Mr. Wright said: 'I find only a few of the first Populists who left the old parties here to-day. If we fuse let us pull down the name Populist for we cannot fuse with credit.'

"These remarks brought J. J. White to his feet, who said all knew how he stood, and said the Populists had Congressmen whom they never would have had were it not for fusion. (Dr. Winslow said yes and you have turned down some whom you did not want.) White then said there were other things Populists wanted besides free silver, that free silver was right smart of a humbug. He said he was in favor of the present election law (the Populist State platform condemns it.) He was for co operation and not in favor of free silver, for it was all humbuggery. He said he was glad he did not vote for Bryan, then be became confused and said he did vote for him, but was sorry he did so. (B. F. Bulla interrupted him, saying if you are not for free silver you ought to walk out of the convention, to which White made no reply.)

"B. F. Bulla here made a speech and closed by saying he voted the Rep-Pop-fusion ticket two years ago and was ashamed of it.

"E. W. Brown, of Pleasant Grove township, said Dr. Winslow and Mr. Wright had expressed his sentiments; that he had talked with the Populists of his townships and they were the sentiments of all of them. He said compare our primaries this Fall with years past and you will see how we have gone back by co-operation. Men say they will not co-operate.

"Mr. Wright's time came now and he said Mr. English had the wrong sow by the ear when he accused him of not voting the Populist ticket two two years ago. 'I voted for the ticket and the Republicans bought them at Raleigh two years ago in the contest for United States Senator (Mr. Wright pointing his finger at Mr. White as he said it.) I am willing to abide by the convention if honesty prevails. There is not one thing in the Republican party which I endorse.'"

But the Pritchard-Holton manipulators got in their work and the result was the first resolution was adopted without opposition, the second, declaring against supporting any candidate who was not in favor of the free coinage of silver at 16 to 1, was defeated by a vote of 35 to 6, and the third, declaring against fusion with gold bugs, was defeated be a vote of 27 to 5. Cy. Thompson says it is "necessary to support goldbug Republicans" to hold their grip, and Pritchard's man, White, declares that "free silver is right smart of a humbug" any how, and thus between the Pritchard tools and the Cy. Thompson crowd who are pulling with Pritchard, the Populist conventions are prostituted and made simply machines to carry out Republican orders. The Randolph convention is another sample.

HELP THE COMMITTEE.

The State Executive Committee, presided over by that indefatigable worker Hon. F. M. Simmons, is doing a noble and patriotic work for North Carolina and for the white people of North Carolina. But, however zealous and industrious the gentlemen who are doing this work for the people may be, they cannot do it thoroughly and effectively without the means any more than a mechanic can do good work without tools.

It requires something more than work to conduct the operations of an executive committee—it requires money. There is clerk hire, printing and stationery, postage and telegraphing, and sundry other expenses, all of which cost money, and considerable money, which must come from some source, and that source is the people, the white people of the State, for whom the committee is laboring so earnestly and faithfully.

It has no Hanna fund to draw upon, and no brigade of well paid Federal and State officers to draw upon, as the Republican-Populist fusion machine managers have, and hence it must depend upon the voluntary and patriotic contributions of the people, who are vitally interested in the result of the coming election, one of, if not the most important to them and their children, ever held in this State.

If North Carolina be redeemed on the 8th day of November next she will stay redeemed; if white supremacy be defeated God in His infinite wisdom alone knows the full measure of the ordeal that the future may have in store for us.

Help the committee in its efforts to save North Carolina.

DICTATOR ABE MIDDLETON.

The Republicans of Wayne county held their convention at Goldsboro last Tuesday. It is needless to remark that a Republican convention in Wayne county is essentially a black convention with just a faint streak of white in it. That was the kind of a convention they had Tuesday.

As a monkey and parrot time was expected, Oscar J. Spears, young Oliver Dockery (who is running for Solicitor), both claiming to be white, and Abe Middleton, of Pender, good, fast ebony black, went there to quell the anticipated racket and whoop up the black boys for fusion with the Pops. Before the rumpus began Spears pleaded for harmony, but his voice was weak and his perspiration was copious.

Rev. C. Dillard scored the white bosses for drawing the color line in the matter of nominations for office and young Oliver jumped up to call him to taw for his rebellious utterances, but the insurgent turned on Oliver and sent him to his corner as meek as a boy who had been caught hooking his mother's jam.

The daisy speech of the occasion was made by Abe Middleton, the ebony dictator from Pender, who is thus quoted by the Argus:

"Why, I does the dictating in my county, and when I does the dictating we always wins."

"We don't want any more negroes in office right now, cause we want to stop this Democratic cry of 'nigger' and get the white Populists to vote with us one more time and carry the next Legislature; then we'll have all the niggers in office we wants for all the time: Just see if we don't."

Abe is doubtless proud of his dictatorship, pretty blunt in his speech, and unsophisticated enough to admit that while they were not going for everything in sight now, they would later on, if fusion triumphed and they get a firm grip. They would go for what they wanted, regardless of the white man's kicking.

And that's about the way it will be. Abe is not only a "dictator" but a prognosticator.

POINTS POLITICAL.

ALL ON THE COLOR LINE.

Congressman White was here last Saturday and spoke to a small crowd in the court house. His whole speech was along the color line, and greatly tickled his audience.—Warrenton Record.

TIRED OF NEGRO RULE.

Only twenty-two Populists attended their convention at Greenville Saturday. The Populists in that county, as well as in others, are tired of negro rule and are returning to the Democratic party.—Kinston Free Press.

THEY ARE DONE WITH IT.

We have the names of several men in Burlington who say they have always been Republicans but they can't go any more dark meat. They swear by all that is good and bad that henceforth they will vote the white man's ticket.—Burlington News.

THEY MUST TAKE AN OATH.

L. H. Daniel, Republican, says that he introduced a resolution, and said it passed and is now on record, at the fusion meeting here last Friday, that every Populist who expects Republican support must take an oath that they would support anything the Republicans named on this ticket, from negro rule up to a long-eared mule.—Roxboro Courier.

TOO MUCH FOR THEM.

Mr. Holton's placing the lowest Republican, irrespective of color, above the best Democrat in the county is not making many votes for the fusion ticket. Populists in this county, when they were first persuaded to enter into a fusion with Republicans, never expected to be called on to endorse such a sentiment as this.—Newton Enterprise.

REALIZING THE IMPORTANCE OF UNITY.

The white men of old Nash are awakening from their former spirit of lethargy and carelessness and interest in the present campaign of right against wrong, purity against corruption and white supremacy against negro domination is steadily increasing. They are now realizing the importance of unity and concert of action.—Nashville Graphic.

A CRITICAL TIME

During the Battle of Santiago.

SICK OR WELL, A RUSH NIGHT AND DAY.

The Packers at the Battle of Santiago de Cuba were all Heroes. Their Heroic Efforts in Getting Ammunition and Rations to the Front Saved the Day.

P. E. Butler, of pack-train No. 3, writing from Santiago, De Cuba, on July 23d, says: "We all had diarrhœa in more or less violent form, and when we landed we had no time to see a doctor, for it was a case of rush and rush night and day to keep the troops supplied with ammunition and rations, but thanks to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhœa Remedy, we were able to keep at work and keep our health; in fact, I sincerely believe that at one critical time this medicine was the indirect saviour of our army, for if the packers had been unable to work there would have been no way of getting supplies to the front. There were no roads that a wagon train could use. My comrade and myself had the good fortune to lay in a supply of this medicine for our pack-train before we left Tampa, and I know in four cases it absolutely saved life."

The above letter was written to the manufacturers of this medicine, the Chamberlain Medicine Co., Des Moines, Iowa. For sale by R. R. BELLAMY. †

A LAWLESS NEGRO.

A Negro Candidate for the State Senate Urges Negroes to Arm and Resist Arrest.

He Declares that Any Negro Who Votes the Democratic Ticket Should be Lynched.

Lee Person, (col.,) is the Republican nominee for the Senate in Edgecombe, and the Populists have arranged to fuse with the Republicans. In a letter from Tarboro to the Charlotte Observer, Mr. H. E. C. Bryant, writes:

"Lee Person is the smartest politician of his race in the South. He is well educated and intelligent, young and active. On the stump he arouses the negroes against the white people. He draws the color line. Last Monday night, the 12th inst., in a speech to negroes, at Mildred, this county, he said:

"'Go to the elections well armed, with rocks in your pockets, clubs in your hands and carrying your pistols. And don't allow any officer to arrest you after you have registered until the day after the election, unless you have stolen something or killed somebody. Come to me if they get after you.'"

"Mr. William H. Felton, being duly sworn before Mr. James R. Gaskill, Notary Public, says: 'My name is William E. Felton, post-office address, Old Sparta, N. C. I was in Old Sparta Monday night, October 29th, 1894, and heard a negro, Lee Person, a Republican candidate for the State Legislature for Edgecombe county, address some of the people of old Sparta and vicinity. During his speech he declared in substance that the poor white man and the negro were now equal; that the poor white man had already begun to invite the negro into his house, and soon the poor white man would invite the negro to eat and sleep with him. Also in the course of his speech Person declared that any negro who voted the Democratic ticket should be lynched, and he for one, would walk from Rocky Mount to Old Sparta to help lynch him. There were present during this vindictive speech probably fifty or more people.'

"This is the kind of negro that will go to the Senate from Edgecombe this year. Person has been holding negro meetings throughout the county for several weeks."

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

— Charlotte News: Prof. A. Graham, superintendent of the city graded schools, informs the News that the total enrollment of both white and colored schools to-day numbered 2,030. Of this number 1,292 are white and 738 colored. This is the largest number of children for September in the history of the schools.

—Salisbury Sun: Sheriff Williams, of Hendersonville, passed through the city last night on his way to Raleigh, having in charge a 12-year old white boy who was recently convicted of stealing a horse and sentenced to five years in the penitentiary. This was the boy's third offence, he having been turned loose twice on account of his age.

— Winston Sentinel: A letter from Leaksville says that on Friday night, about five miles from Leaksville, on the Stoneville road, a man committed suicide by hanging himself on the roadside, in front of Buck Barnes', it is supposed as he bought a rope at Leaksville on Friday. His name is John Hundley, whose father resides near Sandy Ridge. He had on the uniform of a United States soldier. A furlough in his pocket shows that he enlisted in the Third Virginia regiment. He ran away about a year ago for killing a negro in Stokes county. No money was found on his person.

Talking to Tennyson.

Arriving, I sent up my name and heard presently a rather heavy step in the adjoining room, and there stood in the doorway the most un-English looking man I had ever seen. He was tall and high shouldered, careless in dress, and, while he had a high and domed forehead, yet his brilliant eyes and tangled hair and beard gave him rather the air of a partially reformed Corsican bandit or else an imperfectly secularized Carmelite monk than of a decorous and well groomed Englishman. He greeted me shyly, gave me his hand, which was in those days a good deal for an Englishman, and then sidled up to the mantelpiece, leaned upon it and said, with the air of an aggrieved schoolboy: "I am rather afraid of you Americans. Your countrymen do not treat me very well. There was Bayard Taylor." And then he went into a long narration of some grievance incurred through an indiscreet letter of that well known journalist.

Strange to say, the effect of this curious attack was to put me perfectly at my ease. It was if I had visited Shakespeare and had found him in a pet because some one of my fellow countrymen had spelled his name wrong. I knew myself to be wholly innocent and to have no journalistic designs, nor did I ever during his lifetime describe the interview.—Colonel T. W. Higginson in Atlantic.

MASK AGAINST MASK.

The White Ones Scared the Burglars and Saved the Silverware.

We were telling ghost stories one rainy evening at a house party in a Maine town, says a Youth's Companion contributor, when a young lady remarked, with a laugh, "Mine is not exactly a ghost story, but is something like one, and it is, besides, a personal experience.

"I was spending a week with a friend, Frances Livermore, a few years ago, during the absence of her father and mother. The housemaid was called home by illness in her family, and my friend and I were left alone but for the company of a big hound. We were not at all timid, for Tige was an excellent watchdog.

"On the last day of my stay we went to a picnic, from which we returned very tired and with faces sadly sunburned. We applied buttermilk and then covered them with white linen masks, with holes out for eyes and mouth. We had great merriment over our comical appearance.

"Frances expected her father and mother to return that evening, and we sat up rather late awaiting them. At last, however, we gave them up and retired to bed and were soon asleep, with our masks still on.

"Along in the night we were awakened by a noise in the rooms below stairs.

"'They've come!' whispered Frances. 'I'll run down and see if they're all right,' saying which she rose, lighted a candle and started down stairs.

"As soon as she had left the room I decided to follow her, and lighting another candle I threw on a white wrapper and hurried after her.

"The sounds came from the dining room, and we proceeded in that direction. Frances opened the door, expecting to see her mother and father. Instead we beheld two masked men hurriedly putting the silverware into a bag.

"The burglars looked up as we appeared, then hastily dropped bag and silver and fled to the kitchen and out of an open window.

"We did not scream, but stood for a moment petrified with astonishment and terror. Then we looked at each other and did not wonder that our appearance had frightened the burglars. We were in white from head to foot, and with those masks, by the weird light of the candles, we must have looked like veritable ghosts.

"Tige, it appeared, had been lured into the stable and shut up, making it apparent that the burglars were men whom the dog knew. Mr. and Mrs. Livermore had been detained a few miles from home by a broken bridge.

"Frances and I rallied from our fright, hunted up Tige and sat up the remainder of the night, but nothing further occurred. The burglars had carried off nothing."

MARKET AGAINST MASK.

The White Ones Scared the Burglars and Saved the Silverware.

We were telling ghost stories one rainy evening at a house party in a Maine town, says a Youth's Companion contributor, when a young lady remarked, with a laugh, "Mine is not exactly a ghost story, but is something like one, and it is, besides, a personal experience.

"I was spending a week with a friend, Frances Livermore, a few years ago, during the absence of her father and mother. The housemaid was called home by illness in her family, and my friend and I were left alone but for the company of a big hound. We were not at all timid, for Tige was an excellent watchdog.

"CONTEMPTIBLE PIE HUNTERS."

This Is What Butler Called Those Who Favored Co-Operation in 1897.

Here is what Marion Butler said in his paper, the Caucasian, in February, 1897:

"The co-operation of the Populists and Republicans in this State has been a dismal and disastrous failure. Only the contemptible pie-hunters see any good in it."

If you do not believe Marion Butler's paper said this, ask him whether it did or not. He dare not deny it.

If "co-operation" had no "good in it" in 1897, is there "any good in it" in 1898, when Negro Domination is staring us in the face?

What Marion Butler said in the Caucasian in 1897, is exactly what every decent white man in North Carolina believes now.

NAPOLEON'S BADGE OF VIOLETS.

How Bonaparte Came to Adopt the Flower as His Emblem.

An old French pamphlet, published in 1815, tells how the violet came to be the emblem of the Imperialist, or Napoleonic, party in France.

Three days before going into exile on the island of Elba Napoleon was walking up and down a garden at Fontainebleu discussing his future with the Duc de Bassano and General Bertrand. He was still uncertain whether he should go to Elba quietly at the bidding of his enemies or whether he should try to offer some resistance. The Duc de Bassano was urging him to strike a blow for his liberty—bad advice surely.

As the trio walked back and forth they came upon a child 3 or 4 years old who was picking violets. Napoleon called the baby to him and asked for his flowers, and the little thing gave the emperor all he had. A silence in the political talk followed until Napoleon, who always had a vein of superstition in his reasonings, said:

"Well, gentlemen, I am thinking of that child. That chance meeting seems to me like a piece of secret advice, warning me for the future to imitate the modesty of this flower. Yes, the violet shall henceforward be the emblem of my desires."

"Sire," said Bertrand boldly, "for your majesty's glory, I like to think that feeling will last no longer in you than the flowers that inspired it."

But the emperor, silent and unheeding now, withdrew and went to his private rooms. The next day he was seen walking in the garden with a bunch of violets in his buttonhole and stooping now and again to pluck more. A man named Choudieu, a grenadier of the guard, was on sentry duty, and, taking advantage of the laxity of discipline that prevailed in this hour of ruin, he ventured to speak to the fallen sovereign.

"In another year, sire, the violets will be growing thicker here. You can gather them with less trouble."

"What!" was the answer. "Do you suppose I will be here next year?"

"Perhaps sooner. We soldiers hope so."

"But do you know that I leave for Elba day after tomorrow?"

"Your majesty will suffer the storm to pass."

"Are your comrades talking and feeling as you do?"

"Almost all of them."

"Ah! Well, tell them to feel, but not to talk. When your sentry duty is over, go to General Bertrand. He will give you 20 napoleons. But keep the secret."

Choudieu did not keep entirely secret the story of his conference with his majesty, but he threw a veil over his allusions and taught the other soldiers to do so by calling their great and worshiped leader Father Violet. Little by little talk about Father Violet reached the public, and to wear a bunch of violets by the time the next season came around was a recognized sign of Imperialist sympathies. To this day violets are not worn in the same general way in France that they are here and in England, because they are felt to be a political badge. A legitimist would not be seen with a bunch in his buttonhole any more than he would wear a republican tricolor cockade.

PRECURSOR OF HOLLAND.

Civil War Martyrs to the Cause of Submarine Fighting Vessels.

In 1863 Lieutenant Payne, a young, brave and gifted sailor of the Confederate navy, had constructed a submarine torpedo boat.

On Oct. 12 of that year, in Mobile bay, the vessel was sent on an errand of destruction against the Yankee fleet. She dived, but did not come to the surface, and her crew of eight men were suffocated. The inventor had been restrained from taking part in the trial. He had faith in his invention, and on Jan. 11, 1864, insisted in directing the vessel on a similar mission in the harbor of Charleston. Again there was a failure, but Lieutenant Payne and two sailors narrowly escaped the death which overtook their companions by breaking through the top of a glass compartment.

Subsequent improvements caused the vessel to be capable of diving and rising at the will of the operator, and repeated trials in Stone river caused the enthusiasm of the Confederates to know no bounds. She went for a mile under water, discharged blank torpedoes and returned breathing easily. On Jan. 29 of the same year, however, she stuck her nose in the sand, and this time Lieutenant Payne staid to sleep the long sleep with the men who went down with him.

Again the boat was raised. Other brave men manned her, and on Feb. 17, 1864, in Charleston harbor she was sent to attack the Federal warship Housatonic. She accomplished her mission by sinking the big enemy. But the victor did not reappear.

Two years after the war, when the wreckage was being removed from Charleston harbor, the Housatonic was raised. In the side of the great vessel was a jagged hole made by the submarine fighter, and wedged in the hole was Lieutenant Payne's torpedo boat, with the bodies of all the men who went with her to death at their posts, prisoners of the enemy whom they had destroyed.—New York Press.

The Latter Day Funeral.

There is a change in the conduct of funeral processions. There was a day, and not so very long ago, when a funeral procession, the hearse or funeral car and its string of attending carriages always moved decorously along, the horses at a walk. Then, when the funeral train was long, people with a grain of superstition in their composition always had to wait for many minutes before they could cross the streets. But now the funeral procession of New York moves at a half gallop at least, if not almost a full gallop. The horses trot along briskly, almost a great part of the time as if they were pleasure bound. It takes no time at all for the longest train of death to pass by. It is seldom that one sees nowadays a funeral that moves along slowly, and when one does travel through the streets at an old fashioned pace it nearly always attracts comment.—New York Herald.

A HORRID SLANDER.

The Most Infamous That Ever Appeared in Print in This State.

The Alarmed Politicians are Trying to Break the Force of It by Resorting to Various Dodges, But They are Too Thin.

The infamous assault on the white women of this State which appeared on the 18th of August in the Daily Record, the negro paper published in this city, has aroused a storm of indignation from one end of the State to the other. We have received so many requests for copies of the STAR containing this article that we herewith reproduce it in full, the accuracy of which is certified to by Col. John D. Taylor, Clerk of the Superior Court of New Hanover county, and by a number of our well-known business men. The article is headed:

Mrs. Felton's Speech.

"A Mrs. Felton, from Georgia, makes a speech before the Agricultural Society at Tybee, Ga., in which she advocates lynching as an extreme measure. This woman makes a strong plea for womanhood, and if the alleged crimes or rape were half so frequent as is oftimes reported, her plea would be worthy of consideration.

"Mrs. Felton, like many other so-called Christians, loses sight of the basic principle of the religion of Christ in her plea for one class of people as against another. If a missionary spirit is essential for the uplifting of the poor white girls, why is it? The The morals of the poor white people are on a par with their colored neighbors of like conditions, and if any one doubts the statement let him visit among them. The whole lump needs to be leavened by those who profess so much religion and showing them that the preservation of virtue is an essential for the life of any people.

"Mrs. Felton begins well for she admits that education will better protect the girls on the farm from the assaulter. This we admit and it should not be confined to the white any more than to the colored girls. The papers are filled often with reports of rapes of white women, and the subsequent lynching of the alleged rapists. The editors pour forth volleys of aspersions against all negroes because of the few who may be guilty. If the papers and speakers of the other race would condemn the commission of crime because it is crime and not try to make it appear that the negroes were the only criminals, they would find their strongest allies in the intelligent negroes themselves, and together the whites and blacks would root the evil out of both races.

"We suggest that the whites guard their women more closely, as Mrs. Felton says, thus giving no opportunity for the human fiend, be he white or black. You leave your goods out of doors and then complain because they are taken away. Poor white men are careless in the matter of protecting their women, especially on farms. They are careless of their conduct toward them and our experience among poor white people in the country teaches us that the women of that race are not any more particular in the matter of clandestine meetings with colored men, than are the white men with colored women. Meetings of this kind go on for some time until the woman's infatuation or the man's boldness, bring attention to them and the man is lynched for rape. Every negro lynched is called a 'big, burly, black brute,' when in fact many of those who have thus been dealt with had white men for their fathers, and were not only not 'black' and 'burly' but were sufficiently attractive for white girls of culture and refinement to fall in love with them as is well known to all."

"Mrs. Felton must begin at the fountain head if she wishes to purify the stream.

"Teach your men purity. Let virtue be something more than an excuse for them to intimidate and torture a helpless people. Tell your men that it is no worse for a black man to be intimate with a white woman, than for a white man to be intimate with a colored woman.

You set yourselves down as a lot of carping hypocrites; in fact you cry aloud for the virtue of your women while you seek to destroy the morality of ours. Don't think ever that your women will remain pure while you are debauching ours. You sow the seed—the harvest will come in due time."

THE AFFIDAVIT OF THE CLERK.

An effort has been made by some of the politicians to fool the people by representing that this slander was a Democratic trick or was garbled, but the following affidavit from the Clerk of the Superior Court settles the question as to its accuracy:

NORTH CAROLINA,
NEW HANOVER COUNTY.

I, John D. Taylor, Clerk of the Superior Court of New Hanover county, do hereby certify that the foregoing is an accurate and true copy of an editorial in the Daily Record, a paper published in the city of Wilmington, of date Aug. 18, 1898.

"I further certify that said paper has been published in said city at least eight months prior to this date; that Alex. L. Manly, the editor, is a negro, is well known as a Republican and has before this held the office of Deputy Register of Deeds of New Hanover county, by appointment from Charles W. Norwood, Republican Register of Deeds, of New Hanover county.

"I further certify that John N. Goins, business manager; L. D. Manly, foreman; Jno. T. Howe, general traveling agent; and F. G. Manly, general manager, are all negroes, and are known as Republicans and the said Jno. T. Howe was a Republican Representative from New Hanover county in the Legislature of 1897. Witness my hand and seal this August 24th, 1898. JOHN D. TAYLOR,

Clerk Superior Court of New Hanover Co.

Who Manly Is.

As the Republican politicians in this county could not call this assault a Democratic trick, or say it was garbled, they tried to break the force of it by repudiating the paper as a party organ and characterizing the editor as a "simpleton" who represents no one but himself. The following affidavit from a number of business men of Wilmington testifies to the accuracy of the published slander, tells who Manly and his associates on the Record are and shows that Manly was not regarded as a simpleton, or a nobody before he startled the bosses by the publication of that awful article:

BIRMINGHAM, Ala.,
Nov. 12, 1897.

H. E. Thompson, Providential, N. C.:

DEAR SIR:—A month ago you sent me a box of the Jackson Springs Water—twelve bottles. You know how fearfully I was suffering with an acute bladder trouble some weeks before. When I reached home I found the water awaiting me. I have rested and drank that water. I am a new man—my old self practically; my appetite restored; and the tenderness in the bladder has disappeared. I think it is a wonderful water. I had been using for weeks before all sorts of Hints water, but the Jackson Springs Water went to the spot.

With profound gratitude, I am,
Yours, Respectfully, &c.,
CALVIN S. BLACKWELL.

The Doctor further says, it is "the best, I think, God has let run out of the earth for afflicted humanity."

This Water is unsurpassed for Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Insomnia, Nervous Prostration, or any Kidney, Bladder or Stomach Trouble.

Packed for Shipping.

This valuable Water is packed for shipping purposes, one dozen half-gallon bottles to the case. It has permanently cured hundreds who have found it inconvenient to visit the Springs.

The Morning Star.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

THURSDAY MORNING, SEPT. 22.

SPANISH SOLDIERS LEAVING PORTO RICO.

Four Hundred Sail From San Juan. Americans Troops Occupy the Abandoned Positions.

By Cable to the Morning Star

SAN JUAN, September 20.—(Delayed in transmission).—The return of the Spanish soldiers began to-day. Four hundred men, of which two hundred are sick and two hundred belonged to the engineer corps, sailed for Spain on board the French steamer Chateau Lafitte. Eight hundred infantry, belonging to the Asturias battalion, will sail to-morrow on board the steamer San Francisco."

The water front was crowded with thousands of people when the Spanish engineers marched down to the music of the Spanish quick-step to the wharf, where they were received by Captain General Macias and General Ortega. The Captain General did n t make a speech, but he shook hands with the officers and men. There was no demonstration made by the people.

Some Spanish field pieces are already on board the San Francisco, but a question has arisen in the commission concerning the disposition of some of the guns and it was not settled when this dispatch was filed.

The captain general to-day gave notice to the Spanish troops to retire from Abonito, Baranquitas and Barros on Sunday, and from Humacao, Guamani and Cayey on Monday. Our troops will move up and occupy these towns as soon as they are evacuated, and the Spanish troops in position near the capital will enter the city in order to be ready to embark on the arrival of the transports here.

The residents of Porto Rico and some of the Americans are alarmed because some of the Spanish ships returning from Cuba stop at this port. They believe there is danger of the introduction of yellow fever into the island from the Spanish steamer City of Cadiz, as some of the sick men on board of her were too ill to proceed and were brought ahore. Our commissioners will protest, if there is a repetition of this.

The volunteers have now all been disbanded and the Spanish soldiers are engaged in dismantling the armories and barracks and in boxing the guns and ammunition. They are rejoicing over the prospect of an early return to their homes.

Rear Admiral Schley has refused to purchase the coal stored here and it may be purchased for the use of the United States army.

FRENCH CONVICTS REVOLT.

Guards at Cayenne, French Guiana, Overpowered and Murdered—The Principal Prison Besieged.

By Cable to the Mornihg Star.

LONDON, September 21.—A special dispatch from Paris says the deputy representing French Guiana in the Chamber has received a dispatch announcing that a mutiny has taken place among the convicts at Cayenne, the capital of French Guiana. The mutineers, it appears, overpowered and murdered their guards, then stormed the military storehouse and seized the arms and ammunition there. They are now, according to the dispatch, besieging the principal prison and it is feared that they may succeed in freeing the 4,000 convicts confined in the building.

Reinforcements have been telegraphed for from island of Martinique, but is said they will not arrive in time to suppress the mutiny. Devils Island, where Albert Dreyfus, the former captain in the French artillery, is confined under sentence for having sold secrets of the war office to a foreign government, is but a short distance from Cayenne. It is possible that the revolt of convicts may be the death knell of the prisoner whose condemnation has so stirred up the French nation, for his guards are under strict orders to kill him if any attempt is made to release him or if there is any possibility of his escaping.

COL. WM. J. BRYAN.

Final Effort Made to Have His Regiment Mustered Out.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

KANSAS CITY, MO., September 21.—A special to the Star, from Jacksonville, Fla., says:

"Col. Wm. J. Bryan left last night for Washington, having secured leave of absence from General Lee yesterday. He will arrive in Washington to-night, and expects to meet Governor Holcomb, of Nebraska, there. The two will see President McKinley and make a final effort to have the Third Nebraska (Colonel Bryan's) regiment mustered out. His departure was not generally known.

"General Lee informed the Star reporter that he had received a very positive telegram from Washington stating that as some Nebraska troops had already been mustered out, the Third would be retained until another general reduction was made in the volunteer army—something not likely to occur soon.

"Colonel Bryan expects to be back at Jacksonville in time to be present Sunday during the visit of Secretary Alger.

BRITISH STEAMER ASHORE.

The Hibernia Aground Near False Cape on the North Carolina Coast.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NORFOLK, VA., September 21.—Captain Smith, of the British steamer Dunattar, Mobile to Barrow-in-Furness, via Norfolk, arrived to-day and reports passing at about 4 A. M., the British steamer Hibernia, Captain Cameron, two and a quarter miles southwest of False Cape, N. C., aground two miles from the shore. She ran aground in thick weather at 3 A. M., the sea running high, wind then moderate.

Report at 3 P. M. was that the vessel was lyingsteasily, but sea and wind increasing; wind northeast, 25 miles and rapidly increasing. A gale is expected on the coast from Norfolk to Jacksonville to-night. The Merritt Wrecking Company was notified, but the weather is too rough for a tug to venture the rescue.

DREYFUS CASE INVESTIGATION.

French Minister of War Orders Prosecution of Former Colonel Picquart.

ON THE CHARGE OF FORGERY.

Sensational Statement by Col. Picquart. The Government Considering the Advisability of Ordering a Revision of the Trial of Dreyfus.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

PARIS, Sept. 21.—The papers here say the minister of war, General Chanoine, has examined the documents in the Dreyfus case and has ordered the prosecution of former Colonel Picquart, on the charge of forgery and using forged documents.

The trial of Colonel Picquart and M. Leblois, a lawyer, on the charge of revealing documents concerning the national defence, was to have begun to-day before the Correctional Tribunal. The public prosecutors, however, asked for an adjournment, on the ground that the prosecution of Colonel Picquart on the charge of forgery and using forged documents had been ordered by the minister of war. M. Labori, who was counsel for M. Zola during the latter's famous trial, indignantly opposed the adjournment, which, he said, was an attempt to hand over Colonel Picquart into the clutches of the military authorities.

Colonel Picquart then rose and made a statement which caused a sensation. He said: "This is, perhaps, the last time I shall speak in public. I shall sleep, perhaps, in the military prison of Cherche Midi. Therefore I wish to declare that if I find there the strangling cord of Lemercier Picard, or the razor of Col. Henri, it will be murder, for I have no idea of committing suicide."

The audience was intensely moved and shouted "Vive Picquart!" The judges, however, after a short deliberation, decided to indefinitely adjourn the case, and Colonel Picquart was led away between policemen.

Lemercier Picard, the man referred to by Colonel Picquart, was a detective, understood to have been employed in the Dreyfus affair, who was found hanged in his lodgings about a year ago, under circumstances which cast some doubt upon the theory put forward that he committed suicide.

The commission appointed by the Minister of Justice, M. Sarrien, to examine the documents in the Dreyfus case and pronounce upon the advisability of the government formally granting the prisoner of Devil's island a new trial met this afternoon at the Ministry of Justice. The greatest precautions were taken to insure secrecy. It is understood the commission will come to a decision by Monday next, when M. Sarrion will communicate its finding to a cabinet council which will be presided over by President Faure.

HAWAIIAN COMMISSIONERS.

To Leave Honolulu for Washington September 23—Deluged With Petitions from Native Hawaiians.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 21.—The steamship Alameda arrived to-day from Australian points via Honolulu. Advices from the latter place under date of September 16th, say that the Congressional commissioners are finishing their work and expect to leave for Washington on September 23rd.

The commissioners are now being deluged with petitions and memorials from the native Hawaiians. The sentiment of the natives appears to be divided. One faction desires the restoration of the queen while the other accepts the new order of affairs and asks for certain rights under the new form of government.

The natives who favor restoration held a mass meeting on September 12th and adopted a memorial which was presented to the commissioners. The memorial alleges that the annexation treaty has failed and the joint resolution is ineffective because it was not passed by the people of the Hawaiian islands or the representatives of the Legislature. The memorial concludes by asking that the constitutional government of January 16th, 1896, be restored under the protection of the United States of America.

Among the speakers at the mass meeting was Robert W. Wilcox, the revolutionist, who a few weeks ago took the oath of allegiance in order to qualify himself for a full pardon for past misdeeds. Pointing to the United States flag, on the government building he said: "It is useless to say that the flag over there will not come down again. It was up before, and it came down. It will be shown that the annexation vote was carried through by a handful of foreigners. If America loves us, why were not Hawaiians placed on the commission? We are not represented there. The next thing we shall not be able to vote."

The other faction of the Hawaiians also present a memorial to the commission. This memorial asks for territorial form of government, with full rights for the natives and permission to make appropriations for ex-Queen Liliuokalani, Princess Kaiulani and Queen Dowager Kapiolani.

CHEERS FOR ADMIRAL CERVERA.

Arrival of Transport With Spanish Prisoners at Santander.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

SANTANDER, SPAIN, September 21.—The Anchor line steamer City of Rome, chartered by Admiral Cervera to transport to Spain the Spanish sailors, captured at the battle of Santiago, who were recently released by the United States authorities, arrived here to-day from Portsmouth, N. H., whence she sailed on September 12. Captain Eulate, the former commander of the Spanish cruiser Viscaya, and the other Spanish naval officers, landed and were mistaken for a party of which Admiral Cervera was a member. The latter, however, was still on board the City of Rome, but a crowd of people followed the officers and cheered for Admiral Cervera.

Captain Eulate refused to make any statement for publication, declaring he reserved what he had to say for the court martial.

RICHMOND, VA., September 21.—The details of the arrangements for the funeral of Miss Winnie Davis, as far as perfected, were given out to-night in the following order by the committee having charge of the arrangements:

Parties desiring to send flowers will send to the lecture room of St. Paul's Church, where a committee of ladies from the Daughters of the Confederacy will receive and list the same. It is especially requested that no flowers be sent to the Jefferson hotel. The funeral will take place at 3.30 P. M. and be conducted by Rev. Dr. Carmichael, Bishop Whittle, Bishop Penick, Rev. Langdon R. Mason, Dr. Moses D. Hoge and Dr. James P. Smith. The entire body of the church will be reserved for organizations; the public to be only in the galleries.

In concluding the ceremony at the grave the Centenary Church choir will sing a hymn. The churches of the city will toll their bells during the passing of the procession. Citizens are requested to display flags at half-mast.

The active pall-bearers are as follows: From Lee Camp, T. P. Pollard, James E. Phillips, D. S. Redford, W. L. Royall, T. W. Sydnor and J. W. Pegram; from the Sons of Veterans, Edwin P. Cocke and W. R. Waldron.

The following gentlemen are to act as aids to the chief marshal: Captain E. Peter Bosher, Mr. S. W. Travers, Mr. S. H. Hawes, Judge George L. Christian, Major A. W. Garber, Mr. H. C. Chamblin, Mr. Greer H. Baughman, Colonel G. Percy Hawes, Captain J. Thomson Brown, Colonel P. P. Winston, Judge E. C. Minor, Mr. John T. Hughes.

The committee will meet to-morrow to make further arrangements. It is understood that the hearse will be drawn by white horses, and each horse will be led by a veteran.

Notices are pouring in from Confederate Camps in Virginia and other parts of the South, indicating a purpose to send delegations to the funeral, and the procession promises to be a most imposing one.

All of the Confederate organizations in the city have adopted resolutions of respect to the memory of Miss Davis.

The Military Feature.

The military feature will be very striking. It will consist of the local military, embracing infantry and artillery, and probably the Second Virginia regiment which has just arrived here from Jacksonville, Fla. The officers of the regiment will hold a meeting to decide this matter to-morrow morning. Company H, Jeff. Davis Rifles, of this regiment, of Salem, are especially desirous of participating in the parade, and will probably do so, whether the other companies participate or not.

NARRAGANSETT PIER, September 21.—Among the floral offerings to-day was a beautiful ivy wreath, with white roses, from the Times-Democrat, of New Orleans. The pure white blossoms nestled among the shining green leaves seemed to be a promise that her memory would ever be kept green.

All day messages kept pouring in from hundreds of Southern organizations expressing sympathy, and in touching words the profound sorrow of the whole South at the loss of its most beloved daughter.

SPAIN'S COMMISSIONERS.

The Remuneration Which the Government Has Decided Upon.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

MADRID, September 21.—The Spanish Government has decided upon the remuneration which the peace commissioners of Spain will receive for their services while at Paris. The president of the commission, Senor Montero Rios, will receive 12,000 francs monthly and expenses, and each of the commissioners will receive 8,000 francs and expenses per month.

Gen. Toral Insulted.

MADRID, September 21.—When the train conveying General Toral arrived at the station at Bojar, a crowd gathered and insisted that the General show himself. Upon his doing so the gathering loaded him with insults. General Toral, who is ill with fever, uttered a few excuses and beat a retreat in order to avoid being struck.

Admiral Cervera, while at Santander, in thanking the authorities for coming on board the steamer to receive him, dwelt with bitterness upon the situation of the marines, who upon returning after doing their duty quietly, find such an unjust atmosphere of public opinion.

There are two hundred cases of sickness among the passengers on the City of Rome.

COLONIAL CABINET SESSION.

General Blanco Was Present—Important Documents to be Sent to Paris—Advices From Matanzas—Many Deaths From Hunger.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

HAVANA, September 21.—Last night the Colonial Cabinet held a session, presided over by Captain General Blanco, to treat of matters pertaining to the evacuation of the island, and to examine into and approve of the decisions of the supreme government in answer to questions which will arise at the Paris Peace Conference. The Colonial government's judgment and opinion will extend to matters of grave import.

Important documents will be taken to Paris by Dr. Congosto, secretary general of Cuba, who will sail for Europe via New York on Saturday next.

The American commissioners have not yet answered the communication sent them by the Spanish commission regarding the evacuation of the island. The members of the commission refuse to discuss the matter.

Advices from Matanzas state that between the first of January last and September 15th, there were reported 331 births and 3,901 deaths. Of the latter eighty per cent. were due to hunger and distress.

MARBLEHEAD AT QUEBEC.

A Spirited Reception Given the Battered Old Warship With Her Crew of Yankee Sailors.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

QUEBEC, September 21.—The Canadian people to-day paid a magnificent tribute of respect to the memory of the French explorer Champlain, who 290 years ago founded the city of Quebec. In the presence of one of the greatest assemblages ever seen in the province of Quebec near the spot where the great explorer's body is supposed to have been buried, a great monument to his memory was unveiled.

To Americans, the most interesting feature of the occasion was the hearty and enthusiastic reception given to Captain McCalla, of the United States cruiser Marblehead and his gallant crew of marines and sailors. Three British warships arrived here several days ago to participate in the ceremonies, but Her Majesty's great sea warriors, with their crews in gold braid and bright uniforms did not get the spirited reception given the battered and bruised old Marblehead with her handful of Yankee sailors fresh from the stormy scenes on the south coast of Cuba.

It was a little after sunrise this morning when the Marblehead steamed up the river, and when she came in sight the British warships made the old walls of the citadel above them fairly tremble with the thunder of their welcome. The Marblehead answered the salute with her twelve-inch guns.

The moment the Marblehead's guns spoke out a tremendous cheer went up from the ramparts and in Dufferin terrace, where a great throng of people were looking down upon the warships in the river below. Then, again, when the marines, with their colors and band, were marched up through the streets and gate of the old city it was one continuous chorus of cheers for the men of the Marblehead.

At the unveiling ceremonies the Marblehead men were given the position of honor, facing the monument, and they had all the time the lion's share of the crowd's admiration. Captain McCalla was received with warmth by Admiral Sir John Fisher and all the Canadian officials. The Marblehead will remain here for several days.

PINGREE RE-NOMINATED.

Republican Convention of Michigan as a Matter of Course Endorses McKinley and Alger.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

DETROIT, MICH., September 21.—Governor Pingree was re-nominated by acclamation this afternoon by the Republican State Convention. His reform ideas and efforts towards regulating alleged inequalities of taxation were heartily commended in the platform adopted, and many members of his party who have heretofore not been in accord with the Governor, joined in the cheering when he appeared and made a characteristic speech of acceptance.

When the resolutions were reported to the convention they were unanimously adopted without debate.

On the war issue, the resolutions say: "We indorse the present national administration, express confidence in the honesty, integrity and patriotism of President McKinley. We indorse our honored Secretary of War and commend his conscientious, patriotic and unselfish devotion to the honor of the nation and the welfare of the army. We denounce the unjust attacks made on him and offer him our undivided support and confidence."

YELLOW FEVER ABOARD.

Arrival of Transport Segurance at Camp Wikoff From Cuba.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

CAMP WIKOFF, Montauk Point, N. Y., September 21.—The transport Segurance arrived to-day from Cuba with what was said to be one unmistakable case of yellow fever aboard. The transport brought sick and convalescent soldiers from the hospitals at Sibony. The yellow fever patient is isolated and will be kept on the vessel for the present. The Segurance brought forty men who were not able to care for themselves and thirty-five convalescents. All these men will be transferred to the detention camp.

General Lawton's report of the health conditions of the American troops at Santiago last night indicates a distinct improvement.

ALGER'S TOUR OF INSPECTION

Developments Likely to Result in Numerous Charges Against Medical and Quartermaster's Departments.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

LEXINGTON, KY., September 21.—A prominent gentleman close to the national administration as well as to the officers here at Camp Hamilton, says the present tour of inspection of the Southern camps by Secretary Alger, Quartermaster General Ludington and Surgeon General Sternberg will likely develop numerous charges from regimental and general field officers against both the Medical and Quartermaster's Departments and especially against some commissaries.

The talking was begun here by General Sanger against the medical department, and by General Waites against the quartermasters, and it is expected that officers at other points will aid very materially to this testimony before the tour of inspection is completed. Secretary Alger stated that all of this information and all other evidences that he could secure would be presented to the investigating commission at Washington.

At the conference here last evening of Secretary Alger with General Breckinridge, the commander of Camp Hamilton, and other officers, General Sanger said while the division hospital may be a good thing, that as it was conducted it had been a disgrace to the service; that it had deprived the regiments of their surgeons and caused hardships on the sick who should have had better attention at the proper time. Surgeon General Sternberg, in reply, insisted that all requisitions had been honored in Washington and that any medical men failing to do their duty should be reported.

General Waites told Secretary Alger that the neglect of some quartermasters to furnish supplies was criminal. When in Chickamauga he frequently made requisitions which were not honored. An imperative order had been sent to have all water boiled. He made a requisition on Quartermaster General Lee for water boilers. No attention was paid to his requisition and after he repeatedly urged Quartermaster Lee to send the boilers, telling him how the men were contracting typhoid fever, he was met with a reply which read: "The War Department does not furnish boilers." General Waites then purchased the boilers himself, but the seed of typhoid had been sown and the daily report showed the list of deaths and of cases in the hospitals. Pointing at Quartermaster Ludington, Waites said: "These men cannot say it was somebody else's fault. It was the fault of Quartermaster General Ludington, who is standing right there." Ludington made no reply to Waites.

CERVERA'S SUNKEN SHIPS.

Cruiser Maria Teresa Will be Raised. No News as to Hobson's Efforts to Raise the Colon.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, September 21.—The Navy Department has been informed by Captain Goodrich of the Newark, at Guantanamo, that Commodore Watson sailed yesterday from that place for New York, turning over the command of the naval ships on the station to Captain Goodrich. The captain says that the raising of the Spanish cruiser Maria Teresa on which the wreckers are working did not come off yesterday as was expected, but that she surely will be raised successfully.

No word has come to the Navy Department of late respecting the result of Constructor Hobson's efforts to float the Colon and some apprehension is expressed that the ship will go to pieces in the heavy weather that is now due along the south coast of Cuba.

ALGER AT KNOXVILLE.

The Secretary Reviewed the Troops, Including the Third North Carolina.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

KNOXVILLE, TENN., September 21.—Secretary of War Alger, Surgeon General Sternberg and party, arrived this morning at 8.30 from Lexington and were met by a reception committee of citizens. The party proceeded at once to Camp Poland, where the Second division of the First Corps, commanded by Brigadier General McKee, passed in review before General Alger. Seven regiments, the First Georgia, Thirty-first Michigan, Second and Sixth Ohio, First West Virginia, Third North Carolina and Sixth Virginia (the two latter colored) took part in the review.

NEW DEVELOPMENT.

In the Murder Mystery at Bridgeport, Connecticut.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

BRIDGEPORT, CONN., Sept. 21.—A new development in the Yellow Mill pond mystery was made known to-day, with the announcement of the arrest in Hartford of Walter C. Foster. The police have reached the conclusion that the young woman whose dismembered corps, was found in the pond last week was Emma Gill, daughter of Harry Gill, of Southington. The theory of the police is based in some measure upon an alleged striking resemblance between the face of the corpse and that of Emma Gill's brother. Young Foster is accused of having been an accomplice in the murder of Miss Gill.

YELLOW FEVER REPORT.

Five Cases Under Treatment at Orwood, Miss—One Death.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

JACKSON, MISS., September 21.—The Board of Health has modified the quarantine against the State of Louisiana so as to embrace only the parishes of Orleans, St. Mary's and Jefferson.

One new case is reported from Orwood to-night. The following telegram was received to-night from Dr. Haralson at Orwood: "Five cases of yellow fever here under treatment; one death. Exposure to infection has been general."

ISLAND OF LUZON.

The Spaniards Still Hold Seven Seaports in the Hemp District.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

MANILA, September 21.—The report that the last Spanish garrison in the island of Luson had surrendered is premature. The Spaniards still hold seven seaports in Albay province, the principal hemp district. The disturbances have already resulted in a diminution of the output of Albay hemp by 250,000 bales, compared with last year's figures. Further fighting seems imminent, and unless peace is concluded the shortage will be doubled.

Thirteen are dead as a result of the fire and explosion in the Paddock, Hoagee & Co.'s elevator at Toledo, Ohio, Tuesday night.

THE NEWS FROM RALEIGH.

Judge Adams Consulting With Chairman Holton—The Second Regiment—Exaggerated Reports About Riots.

[Special Star Correspondence.]

RALEIGH, N. C., Sept. 21.

Judge Spencer Adams is here consulting with Chairman Holton about the campaign.

This morning Miss Susan Tillinghast and Mr. William West, of this city, were married in the Good Shepherd church here.

The derailing of a freight train occurred on the Seaboard Air Line yesterday near Merry Oaks, but it was soon cleared up, the trains being delayed several hours.

The report about the threatened riot between soldiers and negroes has been greatly exaggerated in some papers. One paper even prints that two negroes were killed outright and six died later, whereas there was no casulty. The leaders of the disturbance have not yet been arrested. Two men are in custody for selling liquor to the crowd last Sunday, but the hearing has been delayed because of the difficulty in obtaining witnesses.

Nearly all of the Second regiment has gone now, only about twelve men from each company remaining as a guard.

All was quiet last night except the occasional report of a pistol in various parts of the town. No fights were reported.

From Republican headquarters thousands of Populist handbooks are being sent out daily.

Superintendent Ray and Director R. C. Rivers left to-day for New York and Baltimore, where they will probably arrange for placing an improved heating apparatus and electric light plant in the Institution for the Blind here.

AS SEEN BY A CROATAN.

The Croatan's Political Interest Identical With That of the Democrats.

[Lumberton Robesonian.]

MR. EDITOR—The negro says that if the Populist party goes up he is going up, and if the party goes down he will go down. The Croatans see that if the Democratic party goes up they will go up, and if it goes down they will go down. But I don't think we will go down this time. The white man is working for the best interest of the Croatans and the Croatans are working for the white man.
